

Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego

Daniel Chapter 3

Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold and he set it up in the province of Babylon. He made a law that when the music played everyone would bow down and worship the image. If anyone did not bow down they would be thrown into a fiery furnace.

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego were from Judah and believed in Yahweh. They would not bow down to the image, only to their Elohim. They told Nebuchadnezzar they would not obey this law and their El would deliver them from the furnace and if not, they would still not bow down to the image. This made the king very angry. He ordered the heat of the furnace be increased seven times hotter. The king told his royal men to bind them and throw them into the fiery furnace. The heat of the furnace was so hot that the men who threw them into the furnace were burned up.

Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was amazed. He rose up quickly and spoke to the royal men, "Did we not throw three men bound into the midst of the fire?" They replied and said to the king, "True, O king." He answered and said, "Behold! I see four men loose, walking in the middle of the fire, and there is no harm among them. And the form of the fourth is like a son of Elohim."

Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the door of the burning, fiery furnace. He told them to come out of the furnace. The king's men saw the fire had no power over them and their hair was not scorched, their clothing was not burned and the smell of fire was not on them.

Nebuchadnezzar made a law that every people, nation, and language who speak anything bad about the El of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, he will cut up and his house will be made an outhouse. He made Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego prosper in the province of Babylon.
